Movie Club

Lights! Camera! ACTION!!

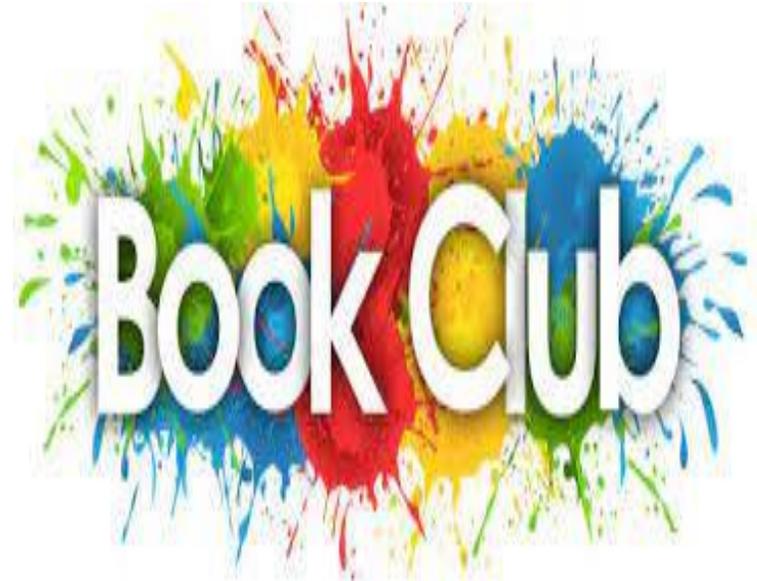

Do you enjoy watching movies? Do you enjoy getting lost in a good book? Now you can do both! First, students will read a popular book that will allow them to use their own imagination. Then, we'll watch the movie based on that same book. Finally, we'll compare and contrast the book vs. movie. Which one do you think you'll like best?

Sponsor: Mrs. Byrd

Storybook Reader's Club

The club explores beloved children's stories, fairytales, and fables. Scholars also learn about famous children's authors such as Marc Brown, Kevin Henkes, and Dr. Seuss. Each storybook closes with an arts and crafts activity.

Sponsor: Ms. Camp

Sociology Club

We will be discussing different aspects of human behavior and how to handle different life situations. We will discuss The difference between reacting and responding to situations. We will observe humans in different environments and discuss why they react or respond the way they do. Each club week we will act out scenarios, discuss situations, and understand why humans are the way they are.
